

Mangrove Educational Books

ISME has recently published three mangrove educational books. They are Continuing the Journey Amongst Mangroves by Barry Clough; Structure, Function & Management of Mangrove Ecosystems by J.E. Ong & W.K. Gong; and Useful Products from Mangrove & other Coastal Plants by S. Baba, H.T. Chan & S. Aksornkoae.

These books were outputs of the ITTO/ISME Small Project entitled Production of an Educational Book Series on Mangroves for Sustainable Management and Utilization of Mangrove Ecosystems [ITTO/ISME SPD 564/09 Rev. 1 (F)], funded by ITTO and the Government of Japan. The trilogy was written and published in commemoration of Prof. Shigeyuki Baba (Executive Director of ISME), who retired from University of the Ryukyus in March 2013.

The three mangrove books were launched by ISME and ITTO in Sabah. Hosted by the Sabah Forestry Department (SFD), the launching ceremony was held at the Rainforest Discovery Centre (RDC) in Sepilok, Sandakan, on 12 March 2013. In attendance were Datuk Sam Mannan (Director of SFD), Prof. Sanit Aksornkoae (President of ISME), Prof. Shigeyuki Baba (Executive Director of ISME) and Dr. Steve Johnson (Representative of ITTO).

The launching ceremony started with the signing of books by authors and key officials from ISME and ITTO.

Twenty five copies of each book were sent to ITTO for distribution to all member countries. Signed copies were presented to the following persons or organizations:

- Princess Maha Sirindhorn of Thailand
- Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Japan
- Chief Executive Officer of ITTO
- The Honourable Chief Minister of Sabah
- Datuk Sam Mannan (Director of SFD)

At the same time, the books were launched on the ISME and GLOMIS websites, and are currently indexed in the database of Google Scholar. Free PDF copies of the books can be downloaded from these websites (ISME: <http://www.mangrove.or.jp/> GLOMIS: <http://www.glomis.com/>). In conjunction with the launching was a special event commemorating the retirement of Prof. Baba from University of the Ryukyus in March 2013. The event was publicized by Borneo Post and See Hua Daily, two local newspapers in Sabah.

Mangrove Ecosystems Occasional Papers No. 4

The ISME Mangrove Ecosystems Occasional Papers No. 4 have been published. The issue has two papers. They are:

- a. Environmental Characteristics of Mangroves for Restoration in the Yucatan Peninsula, Mexico by Prof. Toyohiko Miyagi of Tohoku Gakuin University
- b. Silviculture Manual for Mangrove Restoration in the Yucatan Peninsula, Mexico by Mr. Koichi Tsuruda of Action for Mangrove Reforestation (ACTMANG)

International Workshop on Mangrove Conservation

Organised by the Gujarat Ecology Commission (GEC) in association with the Ministry of State, Forest and Environment Government of Gujarat, World Bank, Mangrove Society of India (MSI) and ISME, the International Workshop on Mangrove Conservation was held at Mahatma Mandir Seminar Hall, Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India from 26–27 July 2013.

Among the speeches delivered during the Inauguration were the welcome address by Dr. A.K. Verma (Member Secretary, Gujarat Ecology Commission), and addresses by Prof. Sanit Aksornkoae (President of ISME), Dr. S.T. Paul (Task Team Leader, ICZM Project of World Bank), and by representatives from the Ministry of State, Forest and Environment Government of Gujarat.

The inauguration was accompanied by a lighting of lamp ceremony to celebrate 26 July as the International Mangrove Day. Some 20 participants from overseas and 200 participants from India attended the workshop with some 30 papers presented.
